BOY THIEVES FIGHT ON TOP OF TRAIN

Caught in Freight Car, One
Shoot at Detective but Misses
His Aim—Both Climb Up to Roof.

(Special to The Evening World.)
NEWARK, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Two boy burglars were arrested last night at Suffern by Erie Detective Vikers on the charge of robbing the Erie stations and U. S. Post Offices at Mahwah, N. J., and Hazelton, Pa.
The thieves are Edward Hansen, who gave his address as 10 1/2 Cedar street, Paterson, N. J., and Isaac Williams, of Halden street, Paterson. The boys are sixteen and nineteen years old respectively.
The lads were arrested while passing through Suffern on a freight car. Detective Vikers had a hard struggle with them and a narrow escape from being shot. He has been after the boys ever since the robberies were committed, several months ago. Vikers cornered them last night in an empty box-car on the freight train. Revolver in hand, he called upon them to surrender. For answer, Hansen, the younger, pulled a pistol and fired point-blank at the detective, but he missed his aim. Then the boys clambered out and got on top of the car.
Vikers followed, and fired several shots at them. He finally chased them over the tops of the moving train, and at the point of the revolver, caused them to surrender. The train was stopped and the boys were committed to the Rockland County Jail for examination.
The boys are full-fledged desperadoes and had a full equipment of burglar tools.

FOUND SUNKEN SCHOONER.

Life Savers, However, Discovered
No Trace of Crew.
(Special to The Evening World.)
CHATHAM, Mass., Nov. 6.—After a heavy squall with thick weather had cleared to-day the mastheads and topmasts of a sunken two-masted schooner were seen about three miles east of Chatham Light.
Capt. Eldridge and crew of the Chatham Life-Saving Station, immediately started for the sunken craft in their lifeboat, hoping to find something by which to identify the unlucky craft and the cause of the disaster. No signs of life about the topmast rigging could be seen from ashore, but Capt. Eldridge hoped he might learn something as to the fate of the men who must have been on board.
The life savers, however, returned to the beach at 9 A. M., having been unable to learn anything as to the crew.

GUEST OF ITALY'S KING.

ROME, Nov. 6.—King Victor Emmanuel, hearing that United States Ambassador Meyer had arrived at Pisa in a motor car, sent his aide-de-camp, Gen. Stranini, to invite the Ambassador and his family to the royal shooting lodge at San Romano, where Mr. Meyer went for a hunt on Nov. 5. During the day the Ambassador rode on horseback with the King and Queen and the King's favorite hunting dogs.

An Outfit Never Equalled Before This Sale for Less than $12.00.
Our men's store originated this combination for men—a suit with two pairs of trousers to match. The plan met with such tremendous favor that it has been imitated far and wide. But the combination we offer is still far in the lead for value. That's natural enough. Being originators, we had to have the first outfits made to order. We did them—as we do still—plan every bit of the outfit ourselves. We select stylish, durable materials, and insist on the most thorough tailoring. We offer just the sturdy, satisfaction-giving qualities that you want. Sizes 34 to 40—$12 outfits..... 7.00
